

IT-Enhanced Organic & Sustainable Education Training Course for Teachers, Trainers and Agriculture Professionals

Approved by the Grundtvig programme of the European Commission

5-11 October 2011
Izmir, Turkey

Application Deadline: 29 April 2011

This training course aims to help professionals understand the current advances related to Organic Farming, Sustainable Education, Blended Learning and Modern ICT tools. The participants will also have the opportunity to attend the GREEN FEST, an International event on environmental issues and establish a dialogue with fellow teachers & professionals.

TOPICS

- Organic Farming: methods, practices and principles
- Sustainable agriculture: Comparison with Organic Agriculture
- Organic Farming legislation, certification and standards
- Blended training methods to approach, educate and advise farmers
- Pedagogical strategies and best practices for using digital teaching resources
- How to design your own learning resources using elearning methods and tools
- How can you find other people with similar interests making use of Web2.0 tools

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

Professionals in agricultural and sustainable development, vocational education and training

HOW TO APPLY?

Applicants from all EU member states (as well as Turkey, Croatia and FYROM) are eligible to apply for a EU Grant covering all their travelling, accommodation and participation expenses. Complete and submit the Grant Application eligible for your country from the corresponding National Agency.

CONTACT

For more information send an email to Prof.Dr. Hulya Atil: atilhulya@gmail.com

The training is supported by:

www.organic-balkanet.eu

www.cerorganic.eu

Approved by:

www.organic-mednet.eu

www.isle-project.eu