Chair in International Relations
Department of Political and Social Sciences

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Chair in International Relations (SPS3)

The Department of Political and Social Sciences invites applications for a chair in International Relations. Candidates should have general expertise in the study of international politics broadly understood, with a strong scholarly record in international relations theory. The profile of the chair includes but is not confined to the study of inter-state relations and we welcome applications from candidates whose work focuses on transformations in the international system, through regional integration, transnational processes, global governance and changes in international political economy.

The contract is for five years, renewable for further three years. The Institute is an equal opportunity employer.

Interested applicants should contact the Director of the Academic Service, Dr. Andreas Frijdal, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 31 August 2012
