

Announcement – GCHERA World Agriculture Prize

A 50.000 USD award for excellence in leadership in agricultural & life science universities

The GCHERA World Agriculture Prize aims to encourage the global development of the mission of higher education institutions in education, research and innovation in the agricultural and life sciences by recognizing the distinguished contribution of an individual to this mission.

Nanjing Agricultural University generously sponsors this 50.000 USD prize to be awarded at a ceremony in Nanjing Agricultural University, China on 20 October 2013.

The Prize was proposed by both Professor Zhai Huqu, the former-president of the Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences (CAAS) and Professor Zhou Guanghong, the President of Nanjing Agricultural University (NAU) and Chairman of Education Professional Committee (EPC) of the Chinese Association of Agricultural Science Societies (CAASS) on October 20, 2012 in the occasion of the 110th anniversary of Nanjing Agricultural University.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS – DEADLINE 31 JULY 2013

The GCHERA World Agriculture Prize will be awarded to an academic/faculty member from a higher education institution working in the disciplines relating to the agricultural and life sciences

A nominee will demonstrate exceptional and significant achievement in his or her engagement in the mission of higher education institutions relating to the agricultural and life sciences.

For full details of the Terms & Conditions for submitting a nomination for the prize see www.gchera-wap.org

Procedure:

Register your intention to submit a nomination. You will then receive a password by email to allow you to log on to the online nomination form. You can update your nomination form at any time until the closing date of 17.00 CET summer time (GMT+2) on 31 July 2013.

