

Call for Papers

THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE

On Globalization, Sustainability and Development

Godollo / Budapest, Hungary

May 04 - 07, 2011

The Global Management Conference (GMconference) invites research pertaining to the full spectrum of organizations including multinational, non-governmental and not-for profit organizations. The GMconference will cover the widest possible range of global management interests including: strategies and managerial processes that cross national boundaries, joint ventures, strategic alliances, political and cultural environments. The GMconference also welcomes submissions of cross national research focused on innovation, democracy, entrepreneurship, leadership, corporate governance social responsibility and new organizational forms or structures.

The GMconference invites theoretical or empirical based submissions that advance social scientific research on Global Management including: competitive papers, abstracts, symposia, and session proposals from all fields of Management and Economics.

Session proposals are intended to advance scholarship while extending the scope of the GMconference to a broad community of researchers and practitioners irrespective of the preferred language of communication.

Submission Deadline of Abstracts/Papers/Session Proposals:
February 25, 2011.

The submissions will be double-blind reviewed on a rolling basis to ensure a rapid decision. Accepted papers will be published in the Global Management Conference proceedings and the best papers will be considered for publication in the Journal of Global Business Administration (JGBA).

Authors of accepted papers must register for the conference to have papers published in the proceedings and will have access to the evaluations and feedback of the reviewers. Authors may revise their papers accordingly prior to the proceedings publication deadline.

Conference website: www.gmconference.ca