

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level... the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Chair in History of Science (HEC1)

The department of History and Civilization invites applications for a Chair in History of Science. Preference will be given to candidates who have a broad range of experience in the history of science and scientific practices in Europe and the world (including social sciences, medicine, environment, technology), able to cover a wide range of topics in the long term. Candidates with an orientation towards interdisciplinary and collaborative research are strongly invited to apply. The chair will be available from September 2013.

The contract is for five years, renewable for a further three years. The Institute is an equal-opportunity employer.

Interested applicants should contact the Director of the Academic Service, Dr. Andreas Frijdal, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 25 March 2012

Tel.: +39-055-4685.332

Fax: +39-055-4685.444

E-mail: applypro@eui.eu

Internet: http://www.eui.eu

European University Institute

Via dei Roccettini 9

I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole, ITALY