

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level... the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Chair in European Intellectual History (HEC4)

The department of History and Civilization invites applications for a Chair in European Intellectual History. Preference will be given to candidates who have a broad range of experience in intellectual history, including the history of political thought from the Renaissance to the present, and whose interests pertain to current debates on Europe. Candidates with an orientation towards interdisciplinary and collaborative research are strongly invited to apply. The chair will be available from September 2012.

The contract is for five years, renewable for a further three years. The Institute is an equal-opportunity employer.

Interested applicants should contact the Director of the Academic Service, Dr. Andreas Frijdal, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 25 March 2012

Tel.: +39-055-4685.332

Fax: +39-055-4685.444

E-mail: applypro@eui.eu

Internet: http://www.eui.eu

European University Institute

Via dei Roccettini 9

I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole, ITALY